rich. Attractive and interesting games added to the party plans, with Phyllis Campbell and Vera Hampton carrying away the honors. Pink and blue daisies decorated the refreshments table and attractive marshmallow favors carried out the theme. Opal Hatzembuhler, presided

Wisteria Festival

The 58-year-old Sierra Madre Wisteria Vine, largest blossoming plant in the world, just missed its usual mid-March opening, but it will be in blossom this week. Official opening of the annual Sierra Madre Wisteria Festival has been set for today.

Kettler Kapers

By LEONA and AL WIMMELL

HI NEIGHBORS! We liked the story in the Sideline's column in "THIS WEEK" magazine about the small boy who visited

New York City for the first time. Riding in an elevator to the top of a skyscraper, he shot past the 62nd floor at breathtaking speed, gulped, and turned to his father and asked: "Daddy, does God know we're coming?"

What we want to know is, "Does everyone know we have taken over this column and would like to have some news?" If so, please phone us at Lomita 2161-W, preferably by Saturday of each week, as we prefer to go fishing on days off.

A PERFECT GENTLEMAN, Johnnie Stroub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stroub, 23308 Falena avenue, was very courteous when he entertained guests at his fifth birthday party last Thursday, even when the children insisted upon opening the presents they brought him. Guests were Bonetta Jarvis, Susan Wise, Sharon and Hal Lockett, Dennie Moore, Steve Botrick, Clyde Oster, Jr., Mark Grubbs and Kenneth Holmes, all accompanied by their mothers. Assisting with the ice cream and cake were Mrs. Fred Wise, Mrs. Ray Lockett, Mrs. Joe Jarvis, and Mrs. Bob Moore.

THEIR BABY DAUGHTER, Pamela Anne, was brought home from Torrance Memorial Hospital recently by Mr. and Mrs. O. D. (Jack) Hoy, 23217 Huber avenue, to be greeted by her brother, 3-year-old Paul Milton. The little lady weighed just over 7 pounds at birth, on March 5. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Findley, 2121 Gramercy avenue, and Mrs. A. A. Hoy of Lomita, gave her a warm welcome. Mr. Hoy is with the Pacific Electric Co. in Torrance. Mrs. Hoy serves as choir director of the Central Evangelical Church of Torrance.

Mrs. Joseph Helphand, 2109 Middlebrook avenue, is entertaining her sewing club today. Complaining to Mrs. Helphand that my wife volunteered my services to write this column, she said she frequently volunteers her husband's blood, but she is in the "doghouse" after volunteering it twice in one week.

A church circle, sponsored by the Methodist Church of Torrance, cordially invites all women in Kettler Knolls to attend meetings the second Tuesday of each month at 7:45 p.m. The circle will be non-denominational. Those interested are advised to phone Mrs. Viola Goree, Lomita 2217-W, or Mrs. Joe Devenish, Lomita 2624-J.

Mrs. Lola Jean Crow, 23309 Huber avenue, and Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan, party director, entertained with a costume jewelry party Tuesday, March 21. Those attending were Mesdames Wanda Yancy, Alice Allen, Ruth Stephens, Mary Briley, Marjorie Wallace, Florence Kilgore, Lois Hamilton, Marjorie Winkelman, Lorraine Simpson and Frances Ivy. Attendance was limited somewhat after the hostess discovered her daughters, Anita and Andrea, had the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McManama of Salt Lake City arrived Sunday to join Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Loy, 2112 Middlebrook road. Formerly residents of Torrance, Mr. McManama worked with National Supply Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Holmes are the proud parents of a son, Dean R. Holmes, born March 24, at Torrance Memorial Hospital. The 6½ pound youngster was delivered by Dr. William Grubbs, attending physician.

A birthday party for 2-year-old Jannie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ridenour, 23115 Huber avenue, held March 18, was enjoyed by the following children: George Witz, Roger McCall, Ronnie Stiman, Judy Long, Dewayne and Caroline Lyons, Gwen Carlson, Janie and Martha Wilson, Beverly Gresham and Helen Moore. Mrs. George Witz and Mrs. Etta Ridenour served ice cream, cake, and punch. Adult guests were Mesdames Harlem McCall, James Stiman, Ray Long, Keith Lyons, Jack Wilson, Richard Gresham, and Miss Caroline Long.

An evening of canasta and a delicious supper were enjoyed by guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Grubbs, 23229 Falena avenue, at their home Saturday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Finstead, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Greybell, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bakley.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Long and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. James Ridenour and daughter, Jannie, and Mrs. Etta Ridenour motored to Hemet to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lubin and family.
